

WebTeam Central

About Time...

It's all about time...

The "daily life" of today's work force is aimed at one goal – be as current and online as much as possible.

This tends to be quite a challenge for today's IT solutions. With WebTeam Central, users can now access multiple calendars in multiple views as easily as signing onto the internet.

Our web based group calendar tool allows all of the functionality of a client side application with the flexibility needed in today's mobile environment.

With WebTeam Central you will get

- A Professional Team calendar with no desktop installation
- Both comprehensive and detailed views are supported with a unique "zoom" functionality
- Intuitive and pleasant layouts of all views provide the user with all the information needed
- The unique web design can be used in both an Intranet solution and an html view directly in Microsoft Outlook®

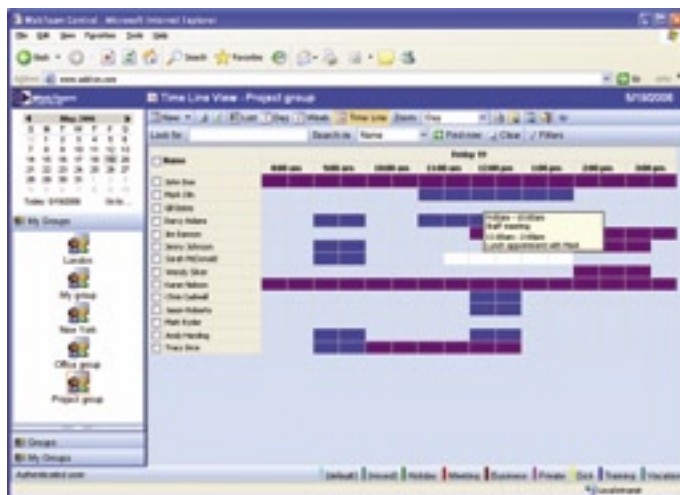

WebTeam Central - offers better opportunities for increased productivity and an improved collaboration platform!
